

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 7, 2012

Contact:
Callie Otto, 920-284-2205,
26otto@cardinalmail.cua.edu
Francesca Witcher, 301-802-2369,
francesca.m.witcher@gmail.com

Media Advisory

On Thursday, February 9, students from Catholic universities joined by their colleagues from other local campuses will come together as Catholic Students for Women's Health at the National Press Club to discuss Catholic students' response regarding the regulations recently proposed by the Department of Health and Human Services for birth control coverage without co-pay or deductible and the subsequent outcry from the US Conference of Catholic Bishops.

What: Catholic Students for Women's Health respond to HHS & the Catholic Bishops

When: Thursday, February 9, 2012
9:30 am

Where: National Press Club, 529 14th Street NW, Washington, DC
Lisagor Room

Who: Callie Otto, Catholic University, President of Students for Choice
Kathleen Kennedy Townsend, former Lt. Governor of Maryland
Erick Orantes, Catholic University, undergraduate Tanisha Humphrey, Georgetown University, H*yas for Choice
Sandra Fluke, Georgetown University, Law Students for Reproductive Justice
Keely Monroe, Fordham University, alumnus
Tea Sefer, American University, Students for Choice
Meghan Smith, Catholics for Choice

Media Credentialing:

Media interested in covering the press conference please contact Francesca Witcher, 301-802-2369, francesca.m.witcher@gmail.com.

###